The screenshot shows the Corel Guide website interface. At the top left is the "Corel® Guide" logo. A navigation bar includes "Home", "Video search", "Learn", "Do More", and "Messages". Below this is the "Corel FlixFinder" section with tabs for "Home", "Most Popular", "New Releases", "Highest Rated", and "Favorites". A search bar is on the right. The main content area is titled "Most Popular: All" and shows "10 results at Amazon..." and "10 results at Netflix...". The results are displayed in a grid of movie and TV show cards. Each card includes a poster image, the title, cast members, a star rating, an IMDb logo, a Facebook Like button, and a price or availability link (e.g., "$3.99 at Amazon"). The visible results include "Tower Heist" (Eddie Murphy, Ben Stiller), "B. Monkey", "The Help" (Emma Stone, Octavia Spencer), "The Red Violin", "Triggerfinger" (Episode 9, Season None), and "The Walking Dead". A left sidebar lists various genres for both Movies and TV, such as Action & Adventure, Animation & Cartoons, Classics, Comedy, Documentaries, Dramas, Horror & Suspense, Independent, Kids & Family, Military & War, Music & Musicals, Mystery & Thrillers, Romance, Sci-Fi & Fantasy, Sports & Fitness, and Westerns.
